

United Way

Investing local funds into local community

28 • THURSDAY, MAY 6, 2010

THE WEST AUSTRALIAN

News

 thewest.com.au

28

Change for children at airports

Visitors to Perth Airport will have the opportunity to turn spare change and leftover foreign coins into life-changing experiences for disadvantaged children, thanks to United Way. The organisation has recently added new coin collection boxes at Perth International Airport and has placed boxes at the domestic airport for the first time. United Way WA chief executive Sue Dixon said all donations would be given to four WA charities.